The Pine

The elm lets fall its leaves before the frost,

The very oak grows shivering and sere,

The trees are barren when the summer's lost;

But one tree keeps its goodness all the year.

Green pine, unchanging as the days go by,

Thou art thyself beneath whatever sky;

My shelter from all winds, my own strong pine,

'Tis spring, 'tis summer, still, while thou art mine.

Augusta Webster.

Aspect of the Pines

Tall, somber, grim, against the morning sky

They rise, scarce touched by melancholy airs,
Which stir the fadeless foliage dreamfully,
As if from realms of mystical despairs.

Tall, somber, grim, they stand with dusky gleams

Brightening to gold within the woodland's core,
Beneath the gracious noontide's tranquil beams -
But the weird winds of morning sigh no more.

A stillness, strange, divine, ineffable,

Broods round and o'er them in the wind's sucease,
And on each tinted copse and shimmering dell
Rests the mute rapture of deep hearted peace.

Last, sunset comes - the solemn joy and might

Borne from the west where cloudless day declines -
Low, flute-like breezes sweep the waves of light,
And, lifting dark green tresses of the pines.

Till every lock is luminous, gently float,

Fraught with hale odors up the heavens afar
To faint when twilight on her virginal throat
Wears for a gem the tremendous vesper star.

Paul Hamilton Hayne.

The Senior Class of 1954 presents this, the ninth volume of the Indianhead, to the students, faculty, alumni, and friends of Pembroke State College. We leave this book as a pictorial diary of the friendships, the play, and the work which have made up this college year, in the hope that the memories of these golden days will never be lost to those who have lived them.

The stately pines, dotting our campus, have made such an impression on us that we feel it quite fitting that The Pines should be chosen as our 1954 theme.

Could we but understand the language of these plumed pines, the past history of our college would be revealed to us. But since their tongue has not yet been translated, we must content ourselves with the year-by-year account in these books. It is with a consciousness of our part in this vast chain of history that we present the pages of this book.

In addition to its historical importance and its being a definite part of our campus, the pine is significant in that it has many characteristics worthy of being emulated in our lives, such as:

The upward look and the outward reach, well-rounded and well-balanced growth throughout life, constancy and consistency, beauty in simplicity, well-groundedness that will give strength and stability through storm and sunshine, ever readiness for service, heart in the right place, the contributing to the lives of others, the drinking deep of life's values, ceaseless activity, the living intimately with nature, the needling out of opportunities for service, steadfastness, and the capacity for continued service or usefulness after death.

It is our hope that you, dear reader, in turning the pages of this book, may not only grasp the past history and experience nostalgic memories, but also may catch from the towering pines the vision needed to attain greater heights.

Greetings From The President

Have you noticed that the pine differs from other trees in that it has a main central root that drives straight down into the ground? It seems to have a "purpose" which holds it true to its course. Neither the food near the surface, nor the warmth and moisture of the air above, detracts it from its drive to the depths. And what is to be found there in the depths of the earth? Security? Yes, not so much for the root as for the great tree which it supports.

We greet The Pines and we wish it well as it sends its tap roots down deep into the soil, not so much that it may itself survive, but that the college which it supports may be strong. Because, down deep is to be found the truth on which education and life depend.

Because we love the man. We love him as a teacher for his kind intellect, his radiant personality, his kindness, devotion and ability; as a gentleman for his sense of sincerity, fair play, justice and honor; as a man for his spirit of understanding which endears him to all of us; and as a friend for his ability to counsel, to inspire confidence and courage.

In Memoriam

We are both grieved and grateful as we pay homage to the memory of our beloved teacher and friend Miss Frances Stinebring.

We are filled with grief at the thought that we shall not see her again physically in our midst with her cheerful smile, her friendly greeting, her bounteous energy and enthusiasm, her zest for life and the sunshine in her soul which made her a delightful teacher, companion, and friend.

We are grateful for her eighteen years of effective and fruitful service at P. S. C., for the lives she has brightened with her kindly counsel and words of encouragement, the hearts she has made happy through her genuine fellowship, her gracious and winning personality, her unselfish devotion to duty, her kindly word, her leadership and instruction, her cheerful disposition, her ever readiness to assist and guide students and her noble example of what each one of us should strive to be as a genuine person.

So thorough and sincere was her teaching and so far reaching her influence, that the high intellectual and moral standards, worthy ideals and lofty ambitions which Miss Stinebring instilled in the students will live on in the hearts and minds of all those who have been in her classes at P. S. C. or who have had the privilege of associating with her. Her exemplary life will be a constant inspiration to all of us.

Let us say of "Miss Stiney", as she was affectionately called, with John Lockey McCrerry as he wrote these lines:

"There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some other shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine forevermore.

"There is no death! The forest leaves convert to life the viewless air;
The rocks disorganize to feed
The hungry moss they bear.

"There is no death! The dust we tread
Shall change, beneath the summer showers,
To golden grain or mellow fruit
Or rainbow-tinted flowers.

"And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life -- there are no dead."

In Memoriam

MRS. KATE GARLAND MARSH

"Weep not; O friends, we should not weep;
Our friend of friends lies full of rest;
No sorrow rankles in her breast,
Fallen fast asleep.

She sleeps below,
She wakes and laughs above;
To-day, as she walked, let us walk in love;
Tomorrow follow so."

Grace is a girl of winning personality, charming, disposition, extensive abilities, and high ideals. We could go on and give countless other qualities but 'tis best expressed by saying -

Her creed is this:

"Give me the thrill of the task,
 The joy of the battle and strife,
 Of being of use, and I'll ask
 No greater reward from this life."

Here's to you, Grace, may a bounteous portion of the world's rewards be yours.

MARTIN L. LOWRY, JR.

M. L. is one of the most popular men in the class and he is a real leader. He has an unusual combination of a happy disposition and a head full of common sense. We are certain of his success as a teacher. He is an all-around fellow and one of our best.

"It's the songs ye sing,
 And the smiles ye wear,
 That's a makin' the sunshine everywhere."

No more pep and life could possibly be stored up in one person than we find in our own Adeline. To make it short, Adeline is a good sport and a true friend.

"Impulsive, earnest, quick to act

And make her generous thought a fact."

Adeline never lacks for something to say, such a vocabulary would silence Webster.

"She hath a heart to conceive, an understanding to direct,

A tongue to persuade, and hands to execute!"

EYRTLE RANSOM

- FRESHMAN: Emeritan Society, Glee Club, W. F., Football.
- SOPHOMORE: Glee Club, W. F., Emeritan Society, Sam in "Take Care Of My Little Girl".

- SENIOR: Emeritan Society, Vice-President of W. F., Vice-President of Class, College Quartet, Manager of College Bookstore, Business Manager of Indianhead, President of Alpha Psi Omega, Dean's Honor Roll, Band. "Most Versatile".

Who is the wit of the class? Eyrtil, of course. Who spends most time in the bookstore? Who "plays" with the stage lights? Who is the real "Inner Willy"? Who is the clown in the quartet? Eyrtil! In addition to his prominence in many activities, Eyrtil has always maintained a high average in scholarship.

"He smiles and then another smiles, and soon There are miles and miles of smiles."

"He openeth his mouth with wisdom;

And the law of teaching is on his tongue."

"Chris" is another member of our class of whom we are truly proud. His high scholastic standing shows us that he has superior intellectual ability, and he not only has ability, he applies it. He never does anything halfway. Along with his scholastic achievements, he is a full time minister.

Since he came here two years ago "Chris" has entered sincerely in the P. S. C. spirit.

 dent, "Most Versatile".

"Music! Oh, how faint, how weak,
 Language fails before thy spell!
 Why should feeling ever speak,
 When thou canst breathe her soul so well?"

Adrene is the type of girl who gets things done.
 She is small in stature but not in heart. She has excelled in sports, dramatics, music and in leadership.
 If Adrene continues as she has started, people knowing her shall say with Henry Ward Beecher:

"Blessed are the happiness wakers,
 Blessed are they who know how to shine on one's gloom with their cheer."

LORRAINE CHAVIS

- FRESHMAN: B. S. U., Emeritan Society, Program Chairman of Y. W. A., Home Economics Club.
- SOPHOMORE: B. S. U., Emeritan Society, Y. W. A., Glee Club.
- JUNIOR: B. S. U. Council, Program Chairman of Y. W. A., Glee Club, Poster Chairman of Emeritan Society, Pembroke Playmakers, El Arco Iris, Band, "Spirit of Peace", Trudy in "Inner Willy", Peggy in "The Green Vine".
- SENIOR: B. S. U. Council, Emeritan Society, Secretary of Y. W. A., Pembroke Playmakers, Annual Staff, Alpha Psi Omega.

"She puts all her troubles in the bottom of her heart and then sits on the lid and smiles."

You never would believe it possible that so much wisdom, business ability and dependability could be wrapped up in so small a package of humanity. Her diligent work in the Dramatic department has proved this to us. But we find all this seriousness flavored with just the right amount of fun.

"She's alike to all and liked by all."

DELTON RAY LOCKLEAR

- FRESHMAN: B. S. U., Emeritan Society, Basketball, Baseball, Football, Social Club.
- SOPHOMORE: Emeritan Society, B. S. U., Baseball, Basketball, Football, Social Club.
- JUNIOR: Emeritan Society, B. S. U., Social Club, Baseball, Basketball, Stanley in "Inner Willy", "The Spirit of Peace".
- SENIOR: B. S. U., Emeritan Society, President of Class, Social Club, Annual Staff, Alpha Psi Omega.

There is so much we could say about our president that it is difficult to draw the line. There is one thing, however, on which we all agree and that is, the class of '54 would not have been the class it is without Delton as our leader. And, too, we wonder just what the Braves will do without him in the games. But we're sure, Delton, you'll meet the same success in everything you undertake and we wish you the best of luck.

"Rare compound of quality, noble and true,
With plenty of sense, and good humor, too."

LESLIE LOCKLEAR

- FRESHMAN: Baseball, Basketball, Emeritan Society, President of Class, Veterans' Club.
- SOPHOMORE: Baseball, Basketball, Football, Emeritan Society.
- JUNIOR: Baseball, Basketball, Football, Emeritan Society.
- SENIOR: Baseball, Basketball, Emeritan Society.

Leslie became a member of our class this year. We are very proud of the contribution that he has made to P.S.C. in athletics. He vies with Eyrle for the title of the "Clown of the Class". He seems to have mastered the fine art of studying since he seems to have an abundance of leisure time.

MAPEL MOORE

- FRESHMAN: W. F., Pontiac Society.
- SOPHOMORE: W. F., Pontiac Society, Secretary-Treasurer of Class.
- JUNIOR: International Relations Chairman of W. F., Pontiac Society, Secretary of Class, Louise in "Inner Willy", President of Home Economics Club, Delegate to N. C. H. E. A.
- SENIOR: Secretary of W. F., Emeritan Society, President of Home Economics Club, Secretary-Treasurer of Class, Secretary-Treasurer of Student Council, Annual Staff, Delegate to Student Legislative Assembly.

Mabel is sweet and friendly to all. It is her manner to be thoughtful of others, and we only wish there were many more like her on whom we could depend. Her dependability has been displayed in her class where she has been a faithful secretary during the four years. We do not hesitate to say that she will have a bright and successful future.

"All her excellencies stand in her so silently as if they had stolen upon her without her knowledge."

ANNIE LOIS OXENDINE

FRESHMAN: Emeritan Society, Band, W. F., Marshal.
 SOPHOMORE: Band, W. F. Council, Emeritan Society.
 JUNIOR: Home Economics Club, W. F. Council,
 Emeritan Society, Band.
 SENIOR: W. F. Council, Emeritan Society,
 Home Economics Club, Social Club,
 Annual Staff.

If you say domestic skill, that expresses Anna Lois. Although there are many other complimentary phrases that might be used in describing her we feel that this one is the highest compliment that can be paid to any woman.

"Whatever she did was done with much ease,
 In her alone 'twas natural to please."

MARVIN LOWRY

Everybody likes Marvin. He is a friendly sort of chap who has a smile for everyone. Vivaciousness, untiring energy, and a sparkling personality combine with tremendous athletic ability to form a fellow who has earned the admiration of his many P. S. C. friends. His faculty for making friends and getting along with people will carry Marvin far on the road to success.

"Honest men esteem and value nothing so much in the world as a real friend."

LOIS M. LOWRY

- FRESHMAN: Basketball, Band, W. F., Y. W. A., Pembroke Playmakers, Emeritan Society, Home Economics Club, Social Club, Dean's Honor Roll.
- SOPHOMORE: W. F., President of Emeritan Society, Home Economics Club, Band, Social Club, Marshal, Pembroke Playmakers, Glee Club.
- JUNIOR: Emeritan Society, Dean's Honor Roll, Social Club, Band, Y. W. A., W. F., Pembroke Playmakers, Angel in "Spirit of Peace".
- SENIOR: W. F., Emeritan Society, Band, Y. W. A., Social Club.

Queenly dignity, combined with cheerfulness, characterizes Lois. Whether there is work to be done or fun to be made, she furnishes her supply. Lois accepted not only a husband, but also, a teaching position before her graduation. We wish for her the very best in life.

To those who know her best:

"Her aim, her manners, have admired,
Courteous, though coy, and gentle though retired;

The joy of youth and health her eyes
displayed,

And ease of heart her every look conveyed."

JOYCE DIMERY

- FRESHMAN: Pontiac Society, Y. W. A., W. F.
- SOPHOMORE: Pontiac Society, W. F., Y. W. A.
- JUNIOR: Emeritan Society, President of El Arco Iris, Social Club, Glee Club, Y. W. A., Community Service Chairman of W. F., Library Helper.
- SENIOR: President of El Arco Iris, Reporter for W. F., Glee Club, Emeritan Society, Social Club, Vice-President of Y. W. A., Annual Staff, Library Helper.

Yes, Joyce is one of those interesting people who proves to be a delightful surprise when you really know her. To most people she is just sweet and smiley, but to a few, she reveals herself as unusually entertaining and witty. She is a good sport too.

"Loyal hearted, strong of mind,
A finer girl you'll nowhere find."

GENEVA SANDERSON

- FRESHMAN: W. F., Emeritan Society, Social Club,

- SOPHOMORE: Personnel Chairman of W. F., Emeritan

- JUNIOR: Secretary of W. F., Emeritan Society,

"Still water runs deep". "Sue" has won a place in the esteem of everyone by her quiet and unassuming manner. This petite miss is one of those people who can wave her hand and call forth such dainties as would delight the fancies of kings. However, it takes skill to apply this wand which is generally in the form of an egg beater or a spoon. Her diligence in applying herself has won her this skill.

"We doubt not that for one so true
There must be a noble work to do."

SALLY BROOKS

A teacher in the public schools.

She is quiet, modest, warm-hearted and generous. All these characteristics are true of Sally. She has not been with us long, but it did not take us long to realize what we've been missing all the time she has not been here. Sally, we know you are a successful teacher, because you have the ability to put it across.

It may easily be said of her:

"There is no friend like a friend
Who will stand by you to the end."

MARSHALL W. LOCKLEAR

Teacher in the public schools.

Marshall, ambitious and conscientious, has certainly won the recognition of being one of the top students of the class. It would have been a great joy to have had him with us during the four years but he had to "sweat out" many of his courses during summer school. Through his perseverance and cleverness he will succeed in everything which he undertakes in the years ahead.

"Literature is the thought of thinking souls."

JAMES C. DIAL

(Not Shown)

James claims the distinction of being the only young man in our class who has evaded matrimony. This bachelorhood, however, does not seem to concern him seriously. The following lines aptly fit him:

"An easy, modest, sort of grace,
With depth of thought upon his face,
With depth of soul within him, too
And you'll always find him just as true."

PSC Baseball Field is soon to get a new look in appearance as well as efficient equipment going to be installed, and the field has long been in poor condition with no bleachers, and showers, dressing rooms, and showers, dressing rooms, and showers will be installed for players and made for spectators.

The legislature has appropriated $100,000 to provide the college with a new field. It will take approximately $50,000 to have them installed. A committee to work with the program for the new field. Mr. James

The committee has set up a fund-raising program to raise the money. It is scheduled for March 19th at the Ball of Meredith College in Raleigh. The speaker, Dr. Campbell is president of the Southern Association of Colleges in which PSC holds membership.

College classes will also get a chance to contribute to the fund raising.

According to Coach Smawley, who has a big interest in the field because of the coming baseball season, an architect is expected to arrive any day to draw up plans for the grandstand. If the work starts very soon, the coach believes the field will be ready for the first game of the season.

Afterword

Our sincere gratitude is here offered to the students, faculty members, and the many friends who have been of invaluable aid to us in the preparation of this book. We wish to express our special appreciation to Mr. Elmer Hunt '53 for his wonderful spirit of co-operation and for his professional touch in the developing and enlarging of the pictures found in the 1954 Indianhead; Lavergne Studio for excellent service in individual photographs, Levi Hunt, Jr. and Edmund Locklear, Jr., student photographers; various students and faculty members for snapshots, the members of the staff, Dr. Wellons, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Lowry, advisor; and last, but by no means least, to our kind advertisers who so courteously received us. We are deeply grateful to all of you for your generous assistance.

With the hope that this yearbook will be a possession worth cherishing and with a deep appreciation for the splendid co-operation we have received, we leave with you this volume - the 1954 INDIAN-HEAD.

Martin and Eyrte.

Make me lovely too;
Keep me ever by thy Spirit,
Pure and strong and true."
